

2014 Fulbright Awards to Study for a Master's or Ph.D Degree in USA

Fulbright is the flagship scholarship program of the U.S. Department of State. The Pakistan Fulbright Program is funded by the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). This award funds graduate study in the United States for a Master's or Ph.D degree, including tuition, required textbooks, airfare, a living stipend, and health insurance. USEFP also assists with the visa process. Pakistani Fulbrighters are studying at universities all over the U.S. Every effort is made to place grantees in programs best suited to their academic background and study objectives.

Eligible Master's applicants will have a four-year Bachelor's degree or a Bachelor's and Master's combination (16 years of formal education) and Ph.D applicants will have Master's, M.Phil., or comparable degree (a minimum of 18 years of formal education) from an accredited university. Pakistan citizens with strong academic histories, residing and working in Pakistan and committed to returning and serving Pakistan are welcome to apply. All disciplines are eligible except clinical medicine. However, applicants are especially encouraged in these priority fields: Energy, Water and Agriculture.

The Graduate Record Examination (GRE) is required for all applicants.
